No. 312.

WEDNESDAY, April 17, 1751.

From the General Evening-Poſt, December 26, 1750.

AT a Time, when Robberies are become ſo frequent; and it gives ſome Hope, that the Reward lately promiſed for the diſcovering and bringing ſuch Offenders to Juſtice, may have the deſired Effect; it muſt give all good Subjects no little Concern to read the following Paragraph in the Paper of this Week; viz. "We hear that proper Workmen have ſurveyed a Spot of Ground near the Mint in Southwark, on which is to be built a Priſon for Felons; which is intended for the Uſe of the New-Goal, that Priſon being at this Time very full of Priſoners."

When I read the firſt Words of this Paragraph, I was in Hopes to find, that a Priſon is to be built for thoſe Felons, who ſhall be found guilty of Death, wherein they ſhall be kept to hard Labour.

It will be objected to this, That if the Puniſhment of Death itſelf will not deter Men from committing Robberies, how much leſs will the Confinement to hard Labour produce that Effect?

To this I anſwer; let a Trial be made of it. Let thoſe Felons be allowed no more Proviſion, than what is abſolutely neceſſary; and let no Perſon whatſoever, beſides their Keepers, be ſuffered to viſit them.

What a melancholy Conſideration is it, both upon a Civil and a Religious Account, to reflect, That no leſs than ſixteen Felons are to be executed next Monday! I heartily wiſh, that they may be reprieved, till a proper Houſe for their Confinement can be had.

Is it not certain, that ſo many Hands will be ſaved, that may be employed for the Good of the Nation, ſuppoſe in providing Materials for the Herring Fiſhery? Is it not probable, that the Souls of theſe poor Creatures may be ſaved, by being brought to a Senſe of their Wickedneſs, before it is too late to think of it, and to repent. Some perhaps, will reply to this, That they may be ſaved, if they repent juſt before their Execution. But I am very ſure, thoſe, who ſay this, muſt either make a new Goſpel, or corrupt the old one.

It can be no great Expence, to provide ſuch a Priſon. And I dare engage Thouſands of good Subjects, and good Chriſtians will contribute towards it.

Let wilful Murder be puniſhed with Death. Both the Law of Nature, and the Law of God, expreſsly require and command it.

But let not Men ſuffer Death for mere Trifles, in themſelves. I allow they are not ſuch in their Conſequence. The ſame Puniſhment muſt be inflicted on all Felons, in order to deter all.

We have had ſufficient Proof and Experience, that the Puniſhment of Death carries little or no Terror with it; whether it be, that many eſcape out of Goal; or for want of ſufficient Evidence, or that they know they ſhall be aſſured of Salvation in another Life, if they confeſs their Crimes before ſome Miniſter, who attends them, but a few Days before their Suffering.

Is it not then wiſe, is it not neceſſary, that ſome other Method be thought of, rather than behold the diſmal Spectacle of ſo many unhappy Criminals, at ſo many ſtated Times in the Year, drove in Carts to Execution?

Pardon me to ſay,—It is a Reproach to a wiſe and Proteſtant People! It is a Reproach to our Holy Religion!

Is it not a melancholy Scene to ſee the Crowds of Spectators that attend at theſe Executions? and for what? To take Warning by their ſad Example? No!——But to be hardened to commit the like Crimes, when they ſee ſuch Numbers die, in Peace and Tranquility, without the leaſt Remorſe, from a falſe Hope of Salvation, that is given them by thoſe who ſhould know better.

For theſe, and for many other Reaſons that may be aſſign'd, which would take up too much Room in your Paper, and therefore are omitted, I truſt what is here ſaid will be taken into Conſideration by thoſe Perſons in high Stations, whom it concerns to think ſeriouſly of it.

Let thoſe unhappy Wretches now under Sentence of Death be ſpared; they are, every one of them, unknown to me: I plead their being exempted from Death—for the good of my Country!—for the Honour of Chriſtianity!—and in pure Compaſſion to the Souls of Men.

PHILANTHROPOS.

Extract of a Letter from Mr. Delaporte, Heir Merchant, who is now at Life in France, to his Friend in London, dated October 9, 1750.

"We have received ſeveral Letters in this Town from Paris, giving an Account of the following uncommon Accident that happened there; viz. Two young Gentlemen went into a Tavern, and called for a Bottle of Wine, each drank off a Bumper: About half an hour after, the Drawer going into the Room, found them both dead, and ſtiff in their Chairs; and the Commiſſaries being ſent for to examine into the Affair, aſked the Landlord, if he would drink of the ſame Wine? To which he replied, he would drink a Gallon, and accordingly he took a Bumper; then they deſired he would drew them his Cellar, which he complied with, but had not gone above half Way, before he dropped, and inſtantly died. When the Officers came to the Cask, which was a freſh Tap, they drew the Liquor out, and found in the Bottom a large Toad, that weighed Seven Pounds."

LONDON.

Nov. 16. There is a Report, that the Right Honourable the Earl of Harrington will reſign, and have a Penſion.

Nov. 12. The learned World has been long in doubt with reſpect to the Truth of the Accounts given by the Northern Hiſtorians, of a Colony antiently ſettled in Greenland, which lies on the North Weſt Side of Davis's Streights, but we learn by a private Letter from Copenhagen, that the Miſſionaries reſiding in that Country have at length diſcovered on the other Side of the Mountains, a numerous Colony that appear to be Chriſtians, and by their frequent Uſe of the Sign of the Croſs, plainly prove that they are Deſcendants of Perſons who ſettled there before Luther's Reformation, which has occaſioned much Speculation in Denmark, where a farther Account of this Matter is very impatiently expected.

Nov. 13. We hear, that on repairing a Houſe lately inhabited by a Perſon who was in a public Poſt in this City, and is now dead, amongſt other Papers concealed behind ſome Wainſcot, there was found a Colonel's Commiſſion from the Pretender, bearing Date in the Time of the Rebellion, and empowering the ſaid Perſon to raiſe a Regiment in the City for his Service.

Nov. 20. We hear from Bordeaux, that the Inſurers of that City having diſcovered enormous Frauds committed in freighting of divers Veſſels, whoſe Cargoes had been enſured, and that this kind of Villainy had been carried to ſuch a Pitch as to loſe, with a premeditated Deſign, one of thoſe inſured Ships called the Vigilant; the ſaid Inſurers applied for Juſtice to the Admiralty of Guienne, and having fully proved the Frauds in queſtion, the Admiralty ſentenced James Dodman, late Maſter of the Vigilant, to be hanged. Three other Fellows, namely, Delbale, Dulvrier, and Salcedo, who had put Goods of little Value in the Room of the Merchandizes that were inſured ſtored, and had concerted with Dodman, the Pretext he ſhould urge for abandoning his Ship in a certain Latitude, and letting her ſink; whilſt he made his Eſcape in the Boat, were alſo ſentenced to the Gallows by the Admiralty: And as the Inſurance on the Goods in queſtion had been fraudulently obtained, the Admiralty had relieved the Inſurers from the ſame, declaring the Contract to be null and void. One Abraham Verneuil, late Maſter of the Ship St. James, and four other Perſons of the Name of Gredier, are ordered by the Admiralty to be proſecuted for Crimes of the ſame Nature.

NEW YORK.

April 8. By Capt. Ramadge, who arrived here about ten Days ago from Leoganne, we have Advice, that about two Months ago Capt. Dickinſon, in a Bermudean Sloop from Jamaica, having been drove on the Coaſt of Hiſpaniola, was taken by a French Guarda Coaſta, and carried into Leoganne, where they confined the Captain thirty Days, pretending his Papers were counterfeit, and endeavouring to condemn him as a Pyrate; but not being able to do it, they at laſt let him go, without any Satisfaction.

The Sloop Moſes, Capt. Ireland, who arrived here laſt Week from the Muſquito Shore, ſailed from this Port in November laſt; and the Day after ſhe ſail'd, met with a very violent Gale at N. W. which ſplit their Mainſail and Square-ſail all to Pieces, and took them three Days Time to mend them again; which they had no ſooner done, than another Gale tore their Jibb to Pieces alſo.——About the 8th of December they met with another hard Gale, which did them ſome Damage, and drove them into a deep Bay, about 20 Leagues to leeward of Barracoa, on the Iſland of Cuba: Before they could get out, a Spaniſh Guarda Coaſta came up to them, took them, and carried them into a River, where there were no Inhabitants, where they kept them eight Days, plundering them of all their Cabbin Stores, and were about doing the ſame to the Cargo; but the Engliſhmen finding their bad Condition, conſpired together, and roſe ſuddenly on the Spaniards, whom they ſoon overcame and ſecured; then they went on board the Guarda Coaſta, to plunder; and after cutting and deſtroying their Sails and Rigging, weigh'd the Anchor, and made off: After they had got out of Danger of a Purſuit, they gave the Spaniards their Canoe again and let them go, and then made the beſt of their Way on their Voyage.

We have Intelligence from the Jerſeys, that ſome Men who belonged to one of the Veſſels that attempted to carry off ſome of the Money belonging to the Spaniſh Wrecks at Ocacock in North Carolina, were laſt Week apprehended, and committed to Amboy Goal, as 'tis ſaid, by Order of the Government.

Laſt Thurſday Capt. Bennet, in a Sloop from the Bay, run on the Eaſt Bank, and was caſt away.

PHILADELPHIA.

April 11. From Maryland we hear, that a Convict Servant, about three Weeks ſince, went into his Maſter's Houſe, with an Axe in his Hand, determined to kill his Miſtreſs; but changing his Purpoſe on ſeeing, as he expreſs'd it, how d——d innocent ſhe look'd, he laid his Hand on a Block, cut it off, and threw it at her, ſaying, Now make me work if you can.

N. B. 'Tis ſaid this deſperate Villain is now begging in Penſylvania, and 'tis thought has been ſeen in this City; he pretends to have loſt his Hand by an Accident: The Public are therefore caution'd to beware of him.

From Bucks County we hear, that a Convict Servant, one John M'Cauleſe, imported here laſt Fall, has broke open and robb'd ſeveral Houſes of Goods to a conſiderable Value; but being apprehended at a Ferry, is committed to Priſon.

Yeſterday the Tryal of Samuel Saunders, for the Murder of Simon Girtie, came on at the Supreme Court; when the Jury return'd their Verdict Manſlaughter.

'When we ſee our Papers fill'd continually with Accounts 'of the moſt audacious Robberies, the moſt cruel Murders, 'and infinite other Villainies, perpetuated by Convicts tranſ'ported from Europe, what melancholy, what terrible Reflec'tions muſt it occaſion! What will become of our Poſterity! '——Theſe are ſome of thy Favours, BRITAIN! Thou art 'called our Mother Country; but what good Mother ever ſent 'Thieves and Villains to accompany her Children; to corrupt 'ſome with their infectious Vices, and murder the reſt? What 'Father ever endeavour'd to ſpread the Plague in his Family! '——We do not aſk Fiſh, but thou giveſt us Serpents, and 'worſe than Serpents!——In what can Britain ſhew a more 'ſovereign Contempt for us, than by emptying their Jails into 'our Settlements; unleſs they would likewiſe empty their Jail 'upon our Tables?——What muſt we think of that B—— 'which has adviſ'd the Repeal of every Law we have hitherto 'made to prevent this Deluge of Wickedneſs overwhelming 'us; and with this cruel Sarcaſm, That thoſe Laws were againſt the Public Utility, for they tended to prevent the IMPROVEMENT and WELL PEOPLING of the Colonies!——'And what muſt we think of thoſe Merchants, who for the 'ſake of a little paltry Gain, will be concern'd in importing 'and diſpoſing of theſe abominable Cargoes?'

We hear that the Caterpillars appear already in ſuch great Numbers in ſeveral Places of this Province, that it is to be fear'ed unleſs ſome Method can be fallen on to clear the Trees of them, they will entirely deſtroy the Fruit.

ANNAPOLIS.

About ten Days ago, the Body of Mr. Abraham Wodall, of this Place, (who us'd to go by Water in a Boat), and the Body of his Negro Man, were both found drove aſhore on the other Side Patapſco, and it is ſuppoſ'd they had been drowned about 5 or 6 Weeks; but the Boat is not yet found, and is ſuppoſ'd to be ſunk.

Thurſday laſt John Owen, was tried for Horſe ſtealing, found Guilty, and received Sentence of Death; but is ſince Pardoned.

Laſt Friday the two young Negro Wenches were executed here, purſuant to their Sentence for burning a Tobacco Houſe ſome Time ago.

Laſt Saturday a Negro Fellow named Sharper, who was tried and condemn'd ſome Time ago in Dorcheſter County, for a Raſpe on a White Woman, but by Means of ſome Flaw in the Proceedings of the Court could not be executed, was again tried here and condemn'd, and is to be executed where he committed the Crime.

Jane Sewell, for ſtealing ſundry Goods; John Hart for ſtealing Bacon; and J. W. for ſtealing Rum; were all found Guilty, and burnt in the Hand.

Yeſterday Morning the Grand Jury were diſcharged.

On Friday laſt, John Steadman a Scotchman, aged 34 Years, was tried for the Murder of his Wife on the 17th of February laſt. Her Body was much bruiſed in many Places, in particular on her Throat, where it was prov'd there were the Marks of a Man's Thumb and Finger, and on her Breaſt the Mark of a Man's Hand; and other Parts much hurt. He confeſs'd at the Bar, that ſhe died in his Arms, but ſaid ſhe died in a Fit. There were twenty Evidences againſt him, which prov'd many as ſtrong Circumſtances as the Nature of the Thing would admit, and the Jury found no Difficulty in bringing him in Guilty: And he was this Day executed, but denied the Fact to the laſt Minute; and was afterwards hung in Chains on a Gibbet near this City.

Monday laſt, David, alias Daniel Sullivan, an Iriſhman, about 23 Years of Age, who had been twice convicted into this Country, was tried for the Murder of Donald M'Kenzie in Baltimore County on the 20th of February laſt, and found Guilty; and was this Day executed here with Steadman, and his Body afterwards ſent to be hung in Chains near the Place where he committed the horrid Fact. He acknowleged the Crime, and ſaid he died a Roman Catholic; but ſpoke very little at the Gallows.

On Wedneſday next Jeremiah Swift, who murder'd Mr. Hatherley's Children at Elk Ridge, is to be carried thither and there executed, and afterwards to be hang'd in Chains near the Place where he committed the Fact.
